

NARI UNIVERSAL DESIGN CERTIFIED PROFESSIONAL (UDCP) CERTIFICATION APPLICATION

This application is the first step in earning the Universal Design Certified Professional (UDCP) designation.

Please read and complete each section fully and accurately in clear, legible handwriting or type. You may submit your application anytime during the year; however, all qualifying remodeling experience and continuing education must be completed at the time the application is submitted. A complete application must be received by NARI Milwaukee and NARI Headquarters 10 days prior to the start of your study group to receive class materials on time.

There is not a membership requirement to apply for the UDCP exam. Both NARI members and non-members will be evaluated equally on the application and subsequent examination. The UDCP program does not discriminate on any basis including race, sex, age, religion, national origin, sexual orientation or disability. Additional information on program requirements, policies, and procedures are available in the NARI Certification Policy Manual. For further assistance contact the office at (414) 771-4071 or info@narimilwaukee.org

Definition of Universal Design Professional: This designation includes professionals with knowledge and skills in a broad range of universal design and remodeling. Individuals with the UDCP designation are recognized as experienced professionals with skills and knowledge in all aspects of universal design and remodeling and have agreed to uphold the NARI Code of Ethics.

How the certification process works: Certification candidates have two examination prep options available – in-person study group organized at the NARI Milwaukee Chapter or the online UDCP prep course offered by NARI National. The in-person study group meets weekly at the NARI Milwaukee office in Wauwatosa. The fee is $300 for members and $400 non-members.

The online UDCP prep course is offered regularly by NARI National. Find more information about the online course here: <https://www.nari.org/Certification-Accreditation/Individual-Certification/Preparatory-Courses>. You can register for the online prep course and join the in-person study group for final test prep sessions (1 or 2 sessions) for $150. An exam proctor fee of $65 also applies if a student participates in the online prep course and takes the exam at NARI Milwaukee. In person testing is a required component of certification.

Requirements for Certification: Candidates must complete and submit this application for consideration by the NARI Certification Board. In addition to completing and submitting an application, to qualify for the UDCP certification exam, candidates must have been in the remodeling industry for a minimum of 2 years. Candidates must also have completed a minimum of 8 hours of universal design remodeling/building related education or participate in the NARI Milwaukee study group or enroll in the online UDCP prep course offered by NARI National.

Certification Renewal: Certifications are renewed annually. Renewals currently require the attainment of 10 hours of universal design remodeling/building related continuing education and the submission of the required renewal fee.

NARI CODE OF ETHICS

I pledge to observe high standards of honesty, integrity and responsibility in the conduct of business:

- By promoting in good faith only those products and services which are known to be functionally and economically sound, and which are known to be consistent with objective standards of health and safety;
- By making all advertising and sales promotion factually accurate, avoiding those practices which tend to mislead or deceive the customer.
- By writing all contracts and warranties such that they comply with federal, state, and local laws.
- By promptly acknowledging and taking appropriate action on all customer complaints.
- By refraining from any act intended to restrain trade or suppress competition.
- By attaining and retaining insurance as required by federal, state, and local authorities.
- By attaining and retaining licensing and/or registration as required by federal, state, and local authorities.
- By taking appropriate action to preserve the health and safety of employees, trade contractors and clients.

NARI STANDARDS OF PRACTICE

The NARI Standards of Practice are maintained as a separate document and may be reviewed here or requested from NARI Milwaukee staff at info@narimilwaukee.org.

APPLICATION AFFIDAVIT

In making this application, I fully understand that it is an application only and does not guarantee certification. I agree to submit to a comprehensive examination and supply further information as determined by the NARI Certification Board. I further understand, and by my signature, attest that I now, and will in the future, adhere to the NARI Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice. I further understand that any false statement or misrepresentation that I may make in the course of these proceedings and application may result in the revocation of this application and the issuance of a complaint of violation of said Ethics.

I understand that NARI reserves the right to update this application, the Code of Ethics, and Standards of Practice, and that it is my responsibility to be aware of NARI's current requirements. I further understand that I am obligated to inform NARI of changed circumstances that may materially affect my application. I further understand that it is my responsibility to provide NARI with any requested documentation in connection with this application.

I understand and agree that if I am certified following acceptance of this application and successful completion of the examination, such certification does not constitute NARI's warranty or guarantee of my fitness or competency to practice as a Universal Design Certified Professional. If I am certified, I authorize NARI to include my name in a list of certified individuals and agree to use the UDCP designation and related NARI trade names, trademarks, and logos only as permitted by NARI policies. I understand and agree that NARI may also use anonymous and aggregate application and examination data for statistical and research purposes.
